Stimulating imaginations of quilt tricksters everywhere

Quiltrick #28: I always bake lots of cookies for the holidays, and this year I have to make extra for a reception. This recipe for "Spritz Cookies" is not only quick, but it's a family favorite. You'll need a Cookie Press... Ingredients: 2-1/2 Cups Flour, 1 Cup Butter, 1 teaspoon vanilla, 1/2 Cup Sugar and 2 Egg Yolks. Cream the butter with the sugar and add the other ingredients. Press in various shapes (decorate with colored sugar if desired) and bake at 350 degrees for 10-12 minutes. YUM!

Happy Holidays! The weather is getting colder and evokes memories of snow, family gatherings, cookies, presents and the Nutcracker. When I was young, one of my sisters couldn't wait to find out what she was receiving for Christmas. She would go searching for the presents and carefully unwrap each one. Then, just as carefully, she would re-wrap them and put them back thinking no one would ever know. Hmmmm... Peggy, I think we found you out! Our newest quiltlet, "Santa's Sentries" has our Nutcrackers guarding the gifts so that no one can open them until Christmas. Can you find the mouse helping them out?

We have a full schedule for the new year, so are pleased to have a few weeks off to enjoy the holidays, with family coming in from Chicago and Spain, and to celebrate with my son, Drew at his Senior Cello Recital at The New England Conservatory of Music. May your holidays be just as blessed!
